The Following EXTRACT
FROM THE
WESTMINSTER JOURNAL
DECEMBER 15, 1753.

Which contains among other Things, the Copy * of a Paper drawn up by Cromwell's Divines, who were to give their Opinion about admitting the Jews to ſettle in this Nation; muſt ſhame and confound all our GALLIO's,---muſt make the T--KERS and all ſuch Chaplains a Scorn and Deriſion,---a Bye-word among the Heathen,---a ſhaking of the Head among the People.

* See Paper-office for the authenticity of this inſtrument.

† 'Tis a ſingular pleaſure to me (ſays my correſpondent) to ſee and to be the inſtrument of ſhewing to others, at this diſtance of time, what worthy regard was paid, on ſo important an occaſion, to the ſentiments of the city of London, eſpecially, as it reflects great luſtre on the preſent citizens, who by the like zeal and concern for the religion, the honour, and trade of their country, have made themſelves the glory of their times, and will alſo leave behind them an everlaſting memorial.